

RUSSIAN LOSS FIGURES UP 155,000

MUNICIPAL ELECTION PASSING OFF QUIETLY

WASHINGTON, March 13—Minister Griscom has cabled the State Department from Tokio under yesterday's date, as follows:

"Official report says Japanese army captured twenty thousand prisoners on the 11th."

Another official report dated today from Tokio reads:

"Russian losses over 155,000—40,000 prisoners, 26,500 dead on the field and about ninety thousand other casualties."

ELOPING MINISTER ON TRIAL

Deserted His Wife and Ran Away With a Young Girl.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., March 13.—The trial of J. E. Cordova, the unfrocked minister and formerly pastor of the Conklin Methodist Episcopal Church of South River, who is charged by a wife with assault and battery and abandonment as a result of two sensational elopements with the daughter of the village blacksmith, was begun here today.

Miss Julia Bowne, the young woman with whom Cordova twice fled, has persistently declined to forsake him and was brought into court today as an extremely unwilling witness.

She has been kept in jail as a witness awaiting the trial, steadfastly refusing to accept bail offered for her release.

The first elopement of the pair occurred last May, but they returned to South River soon afterwards.

A few weeks ago they again eloped, going to Washington, where they were apprehended and brought here under arrest.

Miss Bowne still proclaims her fidelity to Cordova and he has repeatedly declared his willingness to accept punishment if Miss Bowne is unharmed.

DR. HARPER IS TO BE TREATED

NEW YORK, March 13.—Preparations are being made at Lakewood, N. J., for the arrival of Dr. W. R. Harper of the University of Chicago. He is expected Wednesday or Thursday to recuperate from the effects of the operations he recently underwent. If the surroundings agree with him he probably will stay in during the remainder of the season while the X-ray treatment is continued.

IN EXECUTIVE SESSION. WASHINGTON, March 13.—When the Senate convened today Mr. Morgan presented a translation of the Santo Domingo constitution, which was ordered printed as a public document. On motion of Mr. Cullom, the Senate went into executive session.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH; HUSBAND UNDER ARREST

MARYSVILLE, March 13.—The charred remains of Mrs. Joseph Nance were discovered this morning in the ashes of her home on the outskirts of Marysville.

During the heavy wind and rain storm which prevailed the cabin was burned and only the nearest neighbors knew of the disaster until daylight.

The husband of the dead woman is under arrest pending an investigation.

Several shots were heard at the place early in the evening and at 1 o'clock Nance is alleged to have borrowed some matches at a neighbor's house.

It is believed that the woman was killed in the barn and her body carried into the house, which was burned to conceal the crime.

Nance claims that he spent the night at the home of his wife's sister, a Mrs. Petrie, and knew nothing about the fire.

He was not around the building during the fire.

VOTING IS LIGHT IN THE CITY.

Indications Are Mott Will be Elected

—Leach and McElroy

Run Close.

The Storm King played an important part in the municipal election today, and one of the results was that the lightest vote in years was cast during the forenoon.

The sun came out in the afternoon, however, and many of those who were afraid to brave the elements in the morning went to the polls and cast their ballots for the straight Republican ticket, prosperity and progress.

As it appears now, Mott will win the mayoralty fight, with John L. Davis a close second. The "show" of third place will go to either London or Randolph.

CITY ATTORNEY. The other fights seem to be favorable to the straight ticket. In the battle for the City Attorneyship Leach has the Second ward and probably the First. McElroy, it is conceded, has the Sixth. The other wards appear to be about evenly divided so there is no chance of a prophesy. Leach, however, is running strong in East Oakland and if he wins that ward the plum is his.

A closer fight is that for City Treasurer. It is a three-cornered fight and will probably be won by Charles Bates Jr., who is the regular Republican nominee.

THE TREASURERSHIP. Bates appears to be running in an average manner throughout the city. He is receiving the conservative vote. Murray Laidlaw will beat him in some districts and Bortree will do likewise in others, but taken as a whole, the wise ones say that Bates will win. Bortree and Laidlaw, it is surmised, will simply split the opposition to Bates.

Many of Laidlaw's friends, however, declare that it is Bates and Bortree who are splitting votes and that Laidlaw therefore will be the victor.

VOTE FOR TWO. One feature of the election is the fight being made by the friends of Joseph Raymond, the Union Labor candidate for Councilman-at-Large. They have organized their friends, and their slogan is "Plunk for Aiken and Raymond." As a result many voters, particularly in the Third ward, are voting for only two Councilmen-at-Large.

SCRATCHING. The principal scratching is in the vote for School Director-at-Large. Charles L. Ingler is the Republican nominee, and against him is Dr. Myra Knox. Dr. Knox has many friends and is offering the hand of the nomination they are voting for her alone, instead of for four candidates.

FIRST WARD

In the First ward the main fight is that of Leach and McElroy, and it is probable that Leach will win out, as he is backed by the supporters of Alex McAdam and those who are crying for a straight ticket.

The vote throughout the district is light, as in the other wards of the city, but it is expected that before the polls close a full vote will have been cast.

In this district Bortree seems to have the lead for City Treasurer, although Bates is giving him a good run.

Sentiment in the First ward seems to be for Dr. Knox for School Director and Joseph Raymond for Councilman-at-Large. will undoubtedly run ahead of his ticket.

SECOND WARD. The heaviest vote cast during the forenoon was that of the Second ward, where, in the Eighth precinct, 137 of the 250 votes were cast before noon. The voters went early to the polls and appeared to be voting the straight ticket, although many members of the Municipal League live in the district.

It is conceded, even by the friends of McElroy, that Leach will carry the ward by a good majority.

In the other fights it appears to be a seven break between Bates and Bortree, with a small advantage to the latter, while Laidlaw seems to have gone behind. Many votes are being cast for Dr. Knox and Aiken and Raymond.

While the vote throughout the ward during the morning was heavier than in other districts, it continued steadily throughout the afternoon and an average vote for municipal elections will probably be recorded.

THIRD WARD

In the Third Ward the fight for City Attorney and City Treasurer paled into insignificance besides that of Raymond for Councilman-at-Large.

Raymond's friends were well organized. On every hand were in evidence the workers for Raymond and they were all "plunking" for Raymond and Aiken.

McElroy's friends declare that he will carry the Third Ward and the indications are that he will, although the vote is light and Leach has many friends and many workers in the district.

There is a heavy vote in the Third for Dr. Myra Knox. George Fitzgerald practically has no opposition for ward councilman.

The ward will go for Mott. As to how the voting goes the day after tomorrow, the indications are shown by that of the Seventh Precinct, where at the polling place at Twentieth street and San Pablo avenue, 100 votes had been cast at 10 o'clock. At Eighteenth and Brush streets, 47 of the 400 votes had been cast at 8 o'clock.

FOURTH WARD

The vote in the Fourth Ward was light during the forenoon, owing to the rain, but the sun brought out many more after 12 o'clock.

There were many workers throughout the ward for the straight Republican ticket. Among them were Charles MacLain, M. J. Kelley, Edie Plaster and others, and their efforts for the party ticket were tireless.

In the Sixth Precinct of the Fourth Ward only seventy-five votes had been cast at 11:30 o'clock. That is a fair sample of how the balloting ran during the forenoon.

The fight of the ward was between Leach and McElroy and as Leach was on the regular ticket, the workers were for him.

Two years ago we supported McElroy, said an "organization" man, "but this time the workers are for Leach. He is the logical candidate of the party and we will win out in this ward. The vote is light, but Leach men are doing the only work in the ward."

The other contest seemed not to worry the men who worked at the polls.

FIFTH WARD. Voting began early in the Fifth Ward, where many commuters live. Those who go daily across the bay voted before taking their regular trains and at Fourteenth and Webster streets, 178 votes of the 400 to be cast were in before 11 o'clock.

A straight Republican ticket was the favorite throughout the ward. Bates for Treasurer seemed to be a strong favorite.

Ray Baker, Ben Woodner and others were working hard for Bates and they paid little attention to the other candidates except to say a word now and then for Mott. This was unnecessary, however, as Mott was far ahead of Davis, his main opponent.

At the City Hall the vote was unusually light. Under ordinary circumstances two hundred votes are cast in the City Hall precinct before 11 o'clock.

At 11 o'clock this morning only sixty-seven votes had been cast. They were mostly straight tickets.

DEFEAT FACES SLAVS

Oyama Ready to Crush Them at Tie Pass.

TODAY'S DISPATCHES ONLY CONFIRM THE COMPLETENESS OF KUROPATKIN'S DEFEAT. THE RUSSIANS ARE NEARING THEIR TIE PASS POSITION. HOTLY PRESSED BY THE JAPANESE, AND ST. PETERSBURG TODAY ADMITS THAT EVEN THE REMNANTS OF THE ARMY ARE IN DANGER. IT IS REPORTED THAT OYAMA'S FLANKING ARMIES ARE ALREADY IN TOUCH ABOVE THE TIE PASS AND IF THIS PROVES CORRECT EVEN A GREATER DISASTER THAN EVER IS NOW APPARENT. EMPEROR NICHOLAS HAS SUMMONED A WAR COUNCIL FOR TOMORROW, AT WHICH THE WHOLE SITUATION WILL BE CONSIDERED.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 13.—A dispatch from General Kuropatkin, dated March 11, says:

"The enemy is receiving general reinforcements. Examination of the wounded and the prisoners shows General Nogi had almost entirely fresh forces. The Japanese are always able to keep their forces up to full fighting strength because of the ease with which they are able to transport troops from Japan."

In a dispatch, dated March 12, General Kuropatkin says:

"According to reports from the rear guard a Japanese force, consisting of a division and a half, are within a short distance of the Russian rear guard."

"The Second Army is marching continually under the fire of the enemy, who is advancing from the east and west."

MAGNITUDE OF THE CATASTROPHE

ST. PETERSBURG, March 13, 1:30 p. m.—No further news was received from the front this morning, but the magnitude of the catastrophe is now apparent to all here. Where the curtain has been slightly lifted the picture of the awful retreat makes the flesh creep.

The War Office admits that even the remnants of the army are still in danger. Field Marshal Oyama holds a magnificent position strategically. It is reported that Japanese flanking columns are in touch above Tie Pass and that there may be a Sedan there. No adequate estimate of losses has been furnished, but with the units captured on the left, unaccounted for, the killed and wounded already total 65,000. The War Office does not even know accurately what units were captured.

STRIKERS FIRM

NETS USED TO PROTECT MOTORMEN FROM STRIKERS IN NEW YORK.

Street Car Service in New York Does Not Meet Demand of the Public.

NEW YORK, March 13.—That the conditions resulting from the strike on the Interborough Rapid Transit Company's lines have not been adjusted was plainly apparent today.

Although the strikers had been repudiated by their national organization and even advised by their local officers to make an effort to get back their old places and the Interborough Company had announced that the effect of the strike had passed, schedules were more irregular and inadequate today than at any time since last Tuesday.

Even in the subway, where the company concentrated nearly all its efforts for several days to perfect a force of operators from among the strike-breakers and where everything appeared to be approaching a normal basis last week, the service today was far from satisfactory.

CHICAGO, March 13.—After a struggle with a white robed "spirit" in a room in Sebor street, a city detective has arrested the "spirit," despite fierce resistance. When the lights were turned on the visitor from the other world it was found to be Mrs. Jennie Nichols, a young and extremely muscular woman. She will have a hearing today on the charges of obtaining money under false pretenses.

The detective's shirt was badly torn in the fight.

The raid on Mrs. Nichols' place was the first move in a general crusade against "fake" materializations, spirit painting and spirit photography which has been undertaken by the police.

FIFTEEN PEOPLE KILLED

Los Angeles Bridge Collapses During Heavy Rainfall.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—The Seventh street bridge over Los Angeles river fell today, carrying with it into the flood-swelled river twelve to fifteen persons, two of whom are believed to have been drowned. These included two unknown men whose bodies are thought to have been carried down the river.

WOMAN RESCUED. Mrs. Clara A. Webb, 216 East Seventh street, was rescued from the flood but probably fatally hurt by falling timbers.

D. E. Briggs, 3422 Enterprise street, right arm crushed.

Alonzo Thomas, 12 San Julian place, head, left hand and both knees hurt.

Leonard Carmichael and J. Boughman, both severely injured.

BRIDGE FALLS. The high water in the river had attracted a number of sightseers to the bridge. The buttresses of the bridge had been weakened by the flood and when a sudden swelling of the waters came the supports were carried away and the bridge collapsed.

MEN MISSING. Clifford Lintal, who was on the bridge, said after he was rescued that two young men had stood beside him just before the bridge fell. He looked for them afterwards, but could see nothing of them.

SAW BODIES. A colored man reported that he saw

MONDAY EVENING
MRS. JANE STANFORD
WAS NOT POISONED
—TIMOTHY HOPKINS
—DAVID STARR JORDAN
—POLICE DETECTIVES

MRS. STANFORD POISONED
—HIGH SHERIFF HENRY
—CORONER'S JURY VERDICT
—DR. F. H. HUMPHRIS

HONOLULU, March 13.—In the absence of further discoveries, the case of the death of Mrs. Jane Lathrop Stanford at the Moana Hotel here on February 28 is resolving itself into a scientific controversy between chemists as well as between physicians.

Some prominent physicians here, who do not desire to be quoted as against the poisoning theory and believe that Mrs. Stanford died from natural causes.

On the other hand the autopsy physicians and Dr. F. Humphris, who attended Mrs. Stanford on the night of her death, as well as other doctors who have been prominent here for many years, are absolutely positive that death was caused by strychnine poisoning.

R. A. Duncan, food commissioner and chemical analyst of the Board of Health, and Edmund Shore, chemist of the United States Agricultural station, formerly chemist of the Board of Health, who made the chemical tests, have prepared a statement of their experiments, and the physicians have prepared a detailed account of the autopsy.

HONOLULU, March 13.—To sustain the theory that Mrs. Stanford died of poisoning by strychnine it must be determined that a much greater proportion of strychnine was placed in the bicarbonate of soda than was found in the bottle when the soda was analyzed.

It must also be shown whether the strychnine crystals, being larger than the grains of bicarbonate of soda, would gravitate to the bottom of the bottle, or whether the strychnine was poured on top of the bicarbonate of soda shortly before she took the drug.

The verdict of the coroner's jury that Mrs. Stanford died of strychnine poisoning is not regarded as conclusive by President David Starr Jordan, Trustee Timothy Hopkins or Detective Calland and Reynolds.

Dr. Jordan said last night that the possibility of Mrs. Stanford having committed suicide is out of the question. Mr. Hopkins declares that the talk of suicide is both silly and cruel. Mrs. Stanford's religious ideas, said Dr. Jordan, were such as to preclude self-destruction. She was profoundly interested in the future of the university and expressed a desire to live to see the completion of the work which she had undertaken.

Dr. Jordan still has hope that developments will eventually show that Mrs. Stanford was not poisoned. On the other hand, High Sheriff Henry is thoroughly convinced that she was murdered, and he says that the tragedy was the culmination of the attempt to poison her in San Francisco on January 11th last. His theory is that

I offer all Stomach Sufferers a Full Dollar's Worth of my Remedy Free to try

I can afford to offer a full dollar's worth free because mine is no ordinary remedy. Ordinary remedies treat the symptoms. My remedy treats the causes that produce the symptoms. Symptom treatment must be kept up forever as long as the cause is there. My treatment stops the cause as soon as it is removed, the cause, for that is always the end of trouble. Stomach trouble is not only a weakness but a symptom. It has a symptom that a certain set of nerves is ailing. Not the voluntary nerves that enable you to walk and talk and act—but the automatic stomach nerves over which your mind has no control. You have not room here to explain how these tender tiny nerves control and operate the stomach. How worry breaks them down and causes indigestion. How misuse wears them out and causes dyspepsia. How neglect may bring on kidney and heart and other troubles through sympathy. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be reached and strengthened and vitalized and made well by a remedy. I spent thirty years in perfecting—now known by Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I have not room to explain how this remedy, by removing the cause, puts a certain end to indigestion, belching, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, dyspepsia. All of these things are fully explained in the book I will send you when you write. In more than a million homes my remedy is known. It is not only a stomach trouble but once, but repeatedly—morning and over again. Yet you may not have heard of it—or hearing may have been delayed or doubted. So I make this offer to you a stranger that every possible excuse for doubt may be removed. Send me no money—make me no promise—take no risk. Simply write and ask. If you have not tried my remedy, I will send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle—not a sample, but the regular standard bottle he keeps constantly on his shelves. The druggist will require no conditions. He will accept my order as cheerfully as though your dollar had been before him. He will send the bill to me. Will you, I repeat, accept this opportunity to learn at my expense, how to get rid forever of all forms of stomach trouble to be rid not only of the trouble, but of the very cause which produced it? Write today.

For a free or Book 1 on Dyspepsia, for a full dollar bottle on the Heart, must address Dr. Shoop, Box 4 for Women, Shoop, Box 400, Racine, Wis. Book 5 for Men, Racine, Wis. Book 6 on Rheumatism, book you want. Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

SUPERVISORS ACT ON COUNTY MATTERS.

Woman Pleads For Assistance—Applications For Licenses—Reports Are Filed.

The Board of Supervisors met in regular session this morning all the members being present.

PLEA FOR HELP. Mrs. H. S. Taynton appeared before the Board to ask for help for Mrs. Casper, who has been an applicant for relief at various times during the last few years. She has been an inmate of the County Infirmary, but left there, and now desires money from the county.

The Associated Charities reports that Mrs. Casper has refused to do light work, provided for her and that Dr. Kelly and Dr. Shaw have examined her finding her capable of doing light work. Mrs. Taynton said she had seen one of the doctors who said he never examined Mrs. Casper.

Chairman Mitchell informed Mrs. Taynton that Supervisor Kelley had considered Mrs. Casper's case, as she resides in his district, and that the Board could offer her only a home in the County Infirmary.

MONEY RETURNED. Wilbur Walker, secretary of the Alameda County Loan and Purchase Commission returned $28.88 to the board as a portion of joint expenses incurred at St. Louis in making a joint exhibit.

STEWARDS REPORT. H. A. Borchert, steward of the Receiving Hospital reported as follows for the month of February: Patients admitted 31, patients died 1, sent to County Infirmary 4, patients remaining

2, total number of services, 203. Dr. Clark, superintendent of the County Infirmary reported that there were 140 inmates on February 1, 245 inmates. There were 80 admitted during February and 10 discharged, 16 died so that there are now in the register 327 inmates.

SALOON LICENSES WANTED. Applications for saloon licenses were received from A. Calenda, at Newark, and M. J. Cavanaugh, at Niles, and set for hearing on April 3.

THE BOARD APPOINTED. The board appointed Joseph Perry and W. L. Chappel to the positions of Informers at the County Infirmary. Their term of service is to begin when notified by Dr. Clark to continue at the pleasure of this board. The salary to be $25 a month when actually employed.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED. A resolution was adopted regarding the presentation to the board of a map of the Park View tract in Oakland Township by William H. Havens, the resolution directing the clerk to endorse in the map the act that the same has been presented to the board as required by law, it being understood that the board on June 20, 1904, accepted Oakland as shown on the map as a public road.

RETURNS CANVASED. The election returns of the Melrose, Sanitar district election were canvassed, and declared correct, the returns being as hitherto published.

KELLER REPORTS. Despite the fact that J. J. Keller was relieved by the board of his position as Horticultural Commissioner, last month he continues to act as evidenced by a lengthy report filed in his official capacity with the board this morning. The report gives instances of the former commissioner's interest in horticultural matters but makes no reference to the board's action in appointing his successor. The report was filed.

CHICAGO, March 13.—A dispatch to the Tribune from New Orleans says: An official proclamation has been issued by General Stephen D. Lee, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, paying unstinted praise and tribute to Congress for passing the battle flag return measure and to President Roosevelt for his prompt signature. He said: "I would be derelict in my duty not to give expression to the satisfaction that fills the heart of every Confederate veteran for the unanimity with which the National Legislature passed the bill restoring the Confederate battle flags to the several States and the readiness with which the measure was approved by the President. This action is fresh evidence that there are now in our grand country no sectional lines—no South, no North, East or West, but we are all Americans devoted to one common country. And I urge upon all parties, North or South, who have colors in their possession, to return them at once to the State capitals."

This action is unprecedented in the history of Southern Confederate organizations.

THEFTS REPORTED. Mrs. J. J. Gleason, residing at 866 Clay street, reported to the police this morning that some one had stolen a child's go-cart from her residence yesterday. Martin McGinnis, 1463 Seventh street, reported to the police that a poorly dressed man had grabbed a pair of shoes and ran yesterday from his place. Mrs. E. E. Brown, 615 Michigan street, reported this morning that a child's bicycle had been stolen from her home yesterday.

NO CHARGE. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 13.—Today's ballot for United States Senator was without result. The ballot stood.

COLORADO SPRINGS, March 13.—Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 11, southbound, running on the Denver and Rio Grande tracks, collided with the Denver and Rio Grande passenger train No. 4, northbound, last night at Fountain, fourteen miles south of here, and ten persons were injured. No. 4 was heading in from the south end of the side track to allow No. 11 to pass, but train having the right of way, but before it could clear the main line No. 11 crashed into the dining car, overturning it together with a tourist sleeper. The most seriously injured are: Conductor J. G. Creighton, of the dining car, internal injuries; May die. Charles E. Richardson, Buffalo, 80, and Joseph A. Hefner, 40, of the tourist sleeper, right arm broken, and injured in the back.

ESTATE MATTERS BONDS LOST BY A BIG MAJORITY.

IN COURT
PETITIONS FOR FINAL DISTRIBUTION—PROCEATE NOTES.
Fell Short By 6,049 Votes—How the Vote Stood in the Precincts.

Inventory and appraisal of the estate of the late Ange Clark was filed today by J. L. Barker, J. L. Scottler and J. L. Bromley, and the property is valued at $9,557.50. It consists of a small amount of personal property and cash and a home in Berkeley at Le Conte and Hearst avenues.

An order was made this morning by Judge Ogden distributing a piece of property in San Francisco at Mission and Twenty-third streets and belonging to the estate of the late Constantine Mueller to her daughter, Adeline M. Chase. The probating of the estate was closed in 1902, but the present piece of property was not then known to belong to the estate.

By an account of the estate of the late Emeline Alexander filed by Henry Alexander today it is shown that he has received $218.71 on account of the estate and paid out $354.39, leaving a balance of $135.68.

Petition for the final distribution of the estate of the late Mary Lellah Kirkham Blair Yarde-Buller during the latter years of her lifetime has at the request of her son Ralph K. Blair, filed a petition for letters of administration on her estate. Walter Yarde-Buller, husband of deceased now in South Africa, has asked the court to appoint one Albert Vincent of Marin county as administrator. It is understood that Yarde-Buller in receipt of will left by Lady Buller in England in which she leaves all of her property to her son.

The result will not encourage the Council to take orders in plain sight of the people from the attorney of a corporation having a gold brick to sell. All the wards save the Seventh gave a majority against the bonds. In the Sixth the negative majority was more than two to one, showing that the workmen were not deluded by the representation that the bonds would give them work. Even the Second recorded a majority against them, and so did the aristocratic Fifth. In the Seventh the bonds failed of the required two-thirds vote.

The votes by precincts was as follows:

FIRST WARD.		Yes.	No.
First Precinct	33	88
Second Precinct	48	67
Third Precinct	60	135
Fourth Precinct	40	115
Fifth Precinct	125	71
Sixth Precinct	67	138
Seventh Precinct	99	103
SECOND WARD.		Yes.	No.
First Precinct	42	147

TOLEDO, O., March 13.—Last night four men blew open the vault in the Bank at Genoa, fifteen miles east of here, and secured between $25,000 and $30,000 in cash and carried away papers valued at $50,000. A posse is searching for them.

ROBBERS GET A FORTUNE

PROCTOR PLACED ON TRIAL

William Proctor, who last Friday was found guilty of petit larceny for having taken two rings from aged Emily Tyson of Niles, to whom he had proposed marriage and been accepted, was this morning put on trial for a charge of grand larceny in having obtained $108 of her, which grew out of the same transaction. As a prospective husband of the old lady he got her to lend him the money and took the rings under the pretense that he wanted to get them reset for her as a present. The rings were recovered but so far none of the money has been returned.

Proctor has been accused by numerous old ladies from various parts of the State of having made proposals of marriage to them and in this way gained their confidence and got them to entrust him with money and property which he appropriated to his own use and decamped. The two rings he secured from Mrs. Tyson were worth considerably over $100, and he was charged with grand larceny, and it being considered the stronger case of the two against him it was tried first, but owing to the fact that the jurors were not given the opportunity to examine the rings, it is presumed they placed their own value upon them and brought in a verdict of petit larceny, which limits his sentence to six months in the County Jail.

A legal question arises over the charge of grand larceny placed against Proctor in regard to the money and Attorney W. H. H. Gentry hopes to be able to secure a verdict of acquittal for his client on this charge. Proctor is charged with grand larceny and when the proper time comes in the trial Gentry proposes to make a motion to have the court instruct the jury to acquit on the ground that the wrong charge has been placed against Proctor. The money it is alleged was loaned Proctor and Gentry claims that he should be charged with obtaining money by trick and device on embezzlement and that he is entitled to be discharged on a charge of grand larceny.

The following jurors were secured to try the case: Fred Moore, Albert G. Dexter, E. H. Lake, D. H. Cunningham, Enoch Hughes, D. H. Bruns, C. E. Wine, Charles Bond, A. Blatterhaus, George Chase, Peter Alpern, Louis Lovants.

ELECTRIC FLAMES THREATEN BLOCKS OF PROPERTY.

Private and Public Wires Damaged
From Fourteenth Street to Water-Front.

(From Saturday's Last Edition)

Spurting flames of electricity coming from the wires of the Bay Cities Power Company on Fourteenth street in the vicinity of Webster and Harrison streets attracted hundreds of persons there about 1 o'clock this afternoon. It was a grand electrical display while it lasted, but damaging to the Bay Cities wires, the wires of the city, the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company and telephone company in that vicinity.

The first trouble was caused when the fuse blew out in the home of M. Licht at 559 Harrison street. His home was filled with smoke and an alarm was turned in for the fire department.

Then fuses along the Bay Cities wires began to blow out and from Fourteenth street to the water front was one grand electrical display.

Flames shot up in the air from the wires causing hundreds of people to flock to the scene and frightening many whose homes are on the line of wires.

The dropping wires came in contact with the wires of the city telegraph company, light company with the result that the several systems are sagging and the electric cars were delayed.

The electric cars were relieved of locomotive power and the system in the central portion of the city tied up for about half an hour.

Fortunately no one was injured, the police and firemen taking care to notify all pedestrians of the danger.

NO ARRESTS MADE IN STANFORD CASE.

Police Wait For Report From Detectives at Honolulu—No Poison Found in Her Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Captain of Detectives Burnett said today that he would take no decisive action in the case of Mrs. Stanford until the receipt of a report from the officers sent to Honolulu to fully investigate the circumstances connected with her death.

The police deny that any more discoveries of bicarbonate of soda or of strychnine have been made among the Stanford effects. No strychnine, they say, has at any time during the investigation since January 14, been found anywhere in the Stanford house in this city or in the Honolulu hotel where Mrs. Stanford died, beyond that reported to have been found by the chemists in the bottle of Poland water in this city and in the bicarbonate of soda bottle in Honolulu. CASES OF BRIBERS

Names of Four Ex-Senators are Called in Court.

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—The cases of three of the State Senators accused of having accepted bribes were called in Judge Hart's department of the Superior Court today. J. E. Alexander, attorney for E. J. Emmons, one of the accused who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, presented a physician's certificate showing that the man will not be able to appear in court for some time. The case was then continued for four weeks.

A continuance was made in the case of Wright until next Monday, owing to the absence of his attorney, George D. Collins.

The case of Harry Bunkers was continued for one week.

"SEND ANOTHER ARMY"

IS RUSSIA'S REPLY

ST. PETERSBURG, March 11, 6:45 p. m.—North of Mukden, when this dispatch was filed, the situation of the Russian army was depicted as not so bad as generally believed here at this hour, but the allowance must be made for the censor's restrictions.

No official dispatch was issued today. The temper of the Imperial family can perhaps be judged by Grand Duke Vladimir's response when asked what would be Russia's reply to General Kuropatkin's defeat.

"Send another army," was his answer.

It was evident that the dispatch of the Associated Press from The Press dated March 10, 10 p. m. was written and filed at Mukden Friday morning and taken to The Press when the telegraph station was moved there. The dispatch indicates that the Russian rear guard, which Kuropatkin had decided to deliberately sacrifice, was holding works about Mukden while the army was making its way westward, and that he was covering his west flank as best he could from the attacks of Generals Nogi and Oda. The real die of battle was probably about to break.

KUROPATKIN SAYS HIS ARMY IS SAFE.

Russian General Declares That His Main Force is Now
Out of Danger.

(From Saturday's Last Edition)

ST. PETERSBURG, March 11.—A dispatch from General Kuropatkin, timed 6 p. m., March 10th, says:

"The retreat of the army was very dangerous, especially trying for those troops which were some distance from the Mukden road."

"The Japanese penetrated far into the mountains in the direction of Taw. They threatened our troops but thanks to extraordinary efforts our armies are out of danger."

The Japanese left is still said to be working north and the sound of artillery fire is increasing in that direction.

The position of the Russian army at nightfall Thursday seemed good with critical fighting west of the railroad between Mukden and Tie Pass imminent. By dawn Friday the situation was cleared and empty and prepared for all eventualities.

ON THE MARCH

TOKIO, March 11 (3 p. m.).—The Russian forces are now retreating from Mukden northward. They are flanked on both sides by the Japanese troops in pursuit and are suffering heavy losses.

NO SYMPATHY FOR RUSSIA

VIENNA, March 11.—The Viennese press, commenting on the occupation of Mukden by the Japanese, shows no note of sympathy with Russia, but, on the contrary, seems eager to grasp the opportunity to relate "Russia's crushing catastrophe and complete rout."

In some quarters the defeat at Mukden is believed to mean the end of Russia's cause in Manchuria is lost, but as yet there is little talk of peace. It is believed that when the full force of the blow is felt throughout Russia, Emperor Nicholas will be obliged to make peace either at home or in Manchuria.

Common Sense Has Triumphed.

The expected has happened. The water bonds have been snowed under by a majority so overwhelming as to clearly indicate the popular disgust at the peculiar manner in which it was attempted to cram the Bay Cities scheme down the throats of the people. It was a most emphatic rebuke to the Mayor and his satellites, and gave convincing evidence of the existence of a healthy public opinion in this city.

The bonds failed to get a majority in six of the seven wards of the city. The Seventh Ward alone gave them a majority, but it was short of the necessary two-thirds.

The total vote, excluding defective ballots, which count against the bonds, was 9,305-4,188 for and 5,118 against, a popular majority of 930 in the vote.

In other words, the bonds lacked 6,048 of carrying in the face of the 5,118 negative votes. On the vote cast it would have required the transference of 2,017 votes from the nay to the yea column to have given the bonds the requisite two-thirds majority.

The result is not so surprising as that 4,188 citizens should have endorsed the Bay Cities scheme at the polls. Passion and deception, potent as they are, should not have misled so many citizens into voting for a scheme so suggestive of jobbery and so pregnant with dire results to the city. But the good sense of the people of Oakland has signally triumphed over the effort to load the city with debt and involve it in interminable lawsuits. They are to be congratulated. Hydrophobia has not become so universal that the people are willing to take any sort of gold brick which may be offered them.

Having received a benediction from Governor Pardee and a certificate of character from the Sacramento Bee, the Legislature can go home without fear of any delicate attentions from Judge Lynch.

Count Cassini says the war will continue till Russia's arms have been crowned by a victory. He has said the same thing after every Russian defeat. Will the Japs have to knock at the gates of the Winter Palace before the Russians are convinced that their contest is hopeless?

The Stockton Record amiably refers to the editor of THE TRIBUNE as "a journalistic donkey." Evidently our Stockton friend believes with Shakespeare that one touch of nature makes the whole world kin.

A good deal is being said in the press about the necessity for good roads and the best way to secure them. Alameda county has solved the good roads problem by building and paying for them. We fancy that this method furnishes the only practical solution of the so-called good roads problem. We recommend other counties to try it.

No poison appears to have been found in Mrs. Stanford's stomach, but plenty of it is found daily in the San Francisco articles treating of her death. Eliminate the poison theory and all sensation dies out of Mrs. Stanford's death.

Judging from Buffalo Bill's remarks about it, his wife must have given him the gall instead of the blood of the dragon.

Exit Mayor Olney.

On Saturday Mayor Olney "took another ride"—in company with the wooden pipe Bay Cities water scheme, up Salt River. It was a voyage followed by the benedictions of a public that has had enough—and more than enough—of the Mayor's "rides" and other queer performances.

In a few days the people of Oakland will have still further cause for congratulation—Mayor Warren Olney will no longer pause at the City Hall on his way to his San Francisco law office to get his mail—and draw his salary.

Oakland is heartily tired of a Mayor who had only half an hour or so each day to spare to the service of the city in return for the $3,000 a year it paid him. It is also tired of a man who seemed more bent on forcing the city into speculative bonding schemes of a more than questionable character than he was on attending to his proper executive functions. The people are more than tired of government by long-distance telephone. They will therefore bid goodbye to His Honor with unfeigned pleasure.

Mayor Olney went into office with unusual opportunities for making a record. All parties joined to give him his office, and he was absolutely unhampered by pledges to political organization. He was supported by a Council eager to follow his lead. And what has he done? Absolutely nothing, save fathering two bonding schemes, which the voters repudiated with signal emphasis. He took office declaring the several departments should be cleaned out. There has not been a single change in personnel or method since he entered the Mayor's office. Either his charges of general inefficiency and corruption were made in reckless ignorance or he has condoned the abuses without correcting them.

It is about time for the Mayor to crawl into a section of that wood pipe and lie quiet till there is a chance to take "another ride."

AN EASTERN VIEW OF MRS. STANFORD

Sad is the ending of the life of Mrs. Leland Stanford, who lived for many years after the death of her husband and the bright son of 16 years, to whose enduring memory Leland Stanford Jr. University at Palo Alto, Cal., was reared with the family millions, earned in the pioneer building of the Central Pacific railroad and through Mr. Stanford's thrift and sagacity in business. The Stanfords can never be forgotten in California, even did not the remarkable statue of the three at Palo Alto remain to commemorate them. To the memory of her husband Mrs. Stanford dedicated the beautiful church there, whose cost certainly exceeded $600,000, and to whose beauties famous artists of both the old and the new world were enlisted to contribute. The Stanford residence is also most elaborate.

Mrs. Stanford was a good woman and a generous one. If she seemed at times to interfere somewhat more than others thought she ought to with the teaching of the university which the family had created, upon the whole the good that she did far outweighed such small hampering. That she retained so admirable a president as Dr. David Starr Jordan, and gave him the leeway he has enjoyed, is proof of this.

That she was strong with the qualities inherited from a sterling ancestry has been well demonstrated. She was Miss Jane Lathrop, born in Albany in 1825, and there she met Mr. Stanford when he was studying law. They first settled in Port Washington, on the shores of Lake Michigan, and when their house was burned with its contents, including Mr. Stanford's law books, the husband went to California. He first kept store, thus making his start as other successful Californians made theirs, and ten years later became the "war governor" of that State. Mr. Stanford knew that California needed above all else railroad communication with the East, and he put his labor and his money into his faith that she could have one. The first shovelful of earth that marked the beginning of the Central Pacific road was thrown by Mr. Stanford, February 22, 1861, and eight years later, when that road met the Union Pacific coming westward, he drove one of the three last spikes. His vindication was complete and his profits large. The millions that he realized, through the action of husband and wife, will do good in California so long as there are youth to be educated there. The two gave $20,000,000 for the university which bears the name of their son, and to that Mrs. Stanford added above $10,000,000 more. Nor is this all. She devoted some $200,000 to establishing kindergartens in San Francisco, and also built the children's hospital in Albany, N. Y., and endowed it with another $100,000.

Mrs. Stanford cared little for social life. The possession of millions did not turn her head, and her stewardship of them was seriously considered, and not badly discharged. Mrs. Stanford's title to the regard of the public is legitimately based and will endure. She will go into history as one of the remarkable women of her time.—Springfield Republican.

THE OLD COMEDY.

(Miss Ada Rehan in "The Taming of the Shrew.")

If Shakespeare sat last night
In some red cushioned chair,
And saw in shade and light
That turbulent affair
Portrayed with such consummate art,
No doubt it stirred his ghostly heart.

To see his fiery Kate
Display her stormy rage,
And meet her mimic mate
Upon her changeable stage,
No doubt would bring him back a day
And his own wife, Annie Hathaway.

To see him tame the shrew
Would fill his soul with glee,
This tale he surely knew
And not from history;
The mirror was held up, they say,
On his own life to make this play.

If Shakespeare sat last night
And saw Miss Rehan play,
He must have known delight
And smiled in ghostly way,
And after every scenic pause
He doubtless gave her his applause.

Met trouble in de big road,
He tell me, "Howdy-do?"
He ax me whar I gwine;
I tell him: "Fur fum you!"

He say, "I'll keep you comp'ny,
De lonesome way en long."
But Joy come rackin' down de road,
En skeer him wid a song!

Hints for the Ladies

In the jewelry showings corals are shown in Etruscan settings.

Peter Thompson shirt waist suits are shown in the shops in blue and brown at $15.75.

The embroidered batistes displayed in the shops are among the prettiest of summer goods.

In the furniture sales and displays now the showing of Louis XV and Louis XVI furniture is worthy of note.

New sunshades have white embroidered slips over colors, while others yet have cobwebby slip covers of lace.

Pastel gray is one of the colors that is expected to have great popularity this season and it comes in all the new wool and silk goods.

Lingerie blouses are shown made of black mousseline and other sheer black materials and trimmed with insertions of fine black lace.

Among the new parasol showings are those of coarse linen.

Nothing shown at the ribbon counter is handsomer than the Roman striped sash ribbons.

Pongee silk in colors at 39 cents a yard and in black at 49 cents is among the bargains of the shops.

An onyx paperweight is surmounted with the figures of the "Three Graces" in bronze and costs $2.50.

Some dainty little spring hats in fine black and white chips are shown for wear with black and white gowns. Conventionalized yellow tulips in a green cathedral glass pattern is one among the gorgeous wallpaper designs just out for spring decorating.

Narrow ribbon will be much used for dress trimmings this spring and some new weaves and colorings in the narrow widths are displayed in the shops.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Some men are born diplomats and some are married.

As women grow older love cuts much less ice than money.

If you would win the applause of the world you must have the price.

When a man courts trouble he soon has an engagement on his hands.

The more a married man talks at his club the less he has to say at home.

An' if anybody asks you, tell 'em I am with her yet.
Got a sort of 'houn' feelin' in my heart fur that ol' State,
That was planted in me early an' is stavin' with me late.
An' I'm standin' right beside her an' I've got my foot on stay!
Me go back on ol' Missouri? Best be keerful what you say!

Me go back on ol' Missouri when she's sick an' needs my help?
Any feller that would do it is a low-down mangy whelp!
I was born in ol' Missouri, so was all my kith and kin—
If I had to do it over, I'd be born right there agin.

I was born of honest parents, Democratic to the core
And I never yet have wandered from the Democratic door.
But I'm charitable pardner an' I'm shovin' it right here
By forgivin' ol' Missouri when her brain jogs out o' gear.

Me go back on ol' Missouri? Not till Gabriel toots his horn
An' we line up fur inspection on the resurrection morn!
Yo u will find me right beside her till the closin' o' the game
Ready fur to fight her battles fur I know she ain't to blame.
I am free to make confession she is in a sorry plight.
She is mentally afflicted, but you bet her heart's all right;
She is sufferin' poor critter, from a violent attack
Of emotional insanity, but time'll fetch her back.

CUPID GETS THE DIPLOMA.

Cupidation is receiving some jars in these days. It has become necessary to put in force stringent regulations at the Stanford University in California, the Chicago University and in the South Dakota University. Educators have been unable to devise any means to eliminate Cupid in any school where the sexes are taught together. It has been claimed that in the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, the pursuit of knowledge is so absorbing that love is not recognized in its curriculum, but eloquents from Michigan are not decreasing. The success of the little god depends somewhat on the looks of the material he has to deal with, but on graduation day it has generally been found that he has made as high marks as the majority who get sheepskins.—Baltimore Herald.

March April May

There is a best time for doing everything—that is, a time when a thing can be done to the best advantage, most easily and most effectively. Now is the best time for purifying your blood. Why? Because your system is now trying to purify it—you know this by the pimples and other eruptions that have come on your face and body.

LAST OF THE REDCOATS.

The permanent withdrawal of the British garrisons from the fortresses at Halifax and Esquimaux has been accomplished so quietly that North America as a whole has been scarcely conscious of the fact. It means, however, that for the first time in centuries the British soldier has left our continent entirely to its own military devices, and this has a historical significance which does not escape the attention of those who have in mind the part the British soldier has played in America. If you have the right kind of an imagination it cannot fail to respond to the stimulus of this interesting, if inconspicuous, event. You think of Braddock and Wolfe and Burgoyne and Brock and the columns of redcoats that forever will march through the pages of our school histories.—Springfield Republican.

COLLEGE BEAU BRUMMEL NAN IS A FAVORITE IN THE TOMBS.

Rides From San Jose in Automobile and Finally Prefers Wedlock to Prison.

BERKELEY, March 13.—Not disturbed because of his arrest on a charge of seduction, preferred by Miss Corinne Barry of Berkeley, Lewis E. Bulkeley rode into town in an automobile yesterday afternoon, having made the journey from San Jose in company with a party of college men. The collection represented friends of Bulkeley and Miss Barry. They rode to San Jose last night in an automobile secured in Oakland, their mission being to persuade Bulkeley to return at once to the University town and make Miss Barry his wife. They were successful. Bulkeley married the girl last night, Justice Edgar performed the ceremony. Bulkeley was easily found by the visiting colleagues in San Jose, and in the graceful attitude that has made him inimitable as a yell leader at the University listened to the visitors' exhortation to "come back and face the music." Bulkeley, though only at first, finally consented, and by the time Oakland was reached was nonchalant, composed, and, as before, the swaggering Beau Brummel of the college town.

The seriousness of his position seemed to bother him but little, though his friends reminded him that at 10 o'clock on Monday morning he was due to face a felony charge in the court of Justice Edgar of Berkeley.

When urged to at once wed Miss Barry, Bulkeley declared that he must first see his attorney, an Oakland lawyer whose name he refused to reveal. He promised to meet the delegation which had brought him up from San Jose, at Berkeley yesterday afternoon, after consulting with his attorney. At 3 o'clock a conference between Bulkeley and his personal friends and friends of Miss Barry's family was held and for two hours the unsavory subject of Bulkeley's marriage was debated.

Miss Barry, ill and in a critical condition, waited the result of this conference, at her home 1338 Shattuck avenue. She denied herself to all inquirers for information, her brother assuming charge of the household for the day.

At 5 o'clock word was sent to the Barry home that Bulkeley had agreed to wed the girl, and that a license would be procured at once from County Clerk J. P. Cook. Justice Edgar was held and arrangements at once made to have the ceremony performed at the home of the young woman.

Bulkeley explained that most of the delay in the matter was due to his desire to straighten out an affair between himself and Miss Marjory Farow of Redlands, to whom he was engaged to be married. Apparently he satisfied himself that all was clear in that quarter, and then the marriage ceremony with Miss Barry was accomplished. Bulkeley insists that he had been unjustly maligned and that he was not responsible for the unfortunate girl's present state.

ent state. While not denying that he had been intimate with the young woman when she was a college student, he declared that her present condition was something for which he was wrongfully accused. Nevertheless, he has had to admit that his position was too insecure for any creditable defense, and his friends, after he received an answer from the other girl in the south, declined to have him marry her in Oakland, where he appeared before Deputy Clerk James Glover by appointment shortly after 4 o'clock, accompanied by two companions, who, though they both stated their presence was intended to show that the college men were totally in sympathy with Bulkeley in his predicament, persistently refused to give their names. They claimed to be attending college, when, as a matter of fact, one is a well-known gambler. He it was who assumed entire charge of Bulkeley's movements and tried to block all questions regarding his future.

"My name is Bulkeley," said the young man, as he entered the lightly lighted office, "and I am not buying a marriage license." He was pale and nervous and answered the questions put to him almost in a whisper, with the air of a man giving incriminating evidence against himself, his continually glanced behind him as though fearing some one or something which might appear.

When the momentous paper had been signed, sealed and delivered to him, Bulkeley was approached by a reporter and informed that the columns of the paper were open to him to correct or add to the published reports.

"I have nothing to say," he replied. "This whole thing is so unexpected that I am dazed."

"What, if any, plans have you made for the future? Will you continue your college course, or will you enter some business?"

"I have no plans. My God, man, I'm torn to pieces. I don't know what I will do. I don't know what I will do. I don't know what I will do. I don't know what I will do."

Speaking generally regarding the matter, he expressed himself as much chagrined by the publicity, but had nothing to say when it was suggested that publicity could have been avoided long ago, had the same action which he had taken last night been taken months ago.

AGED MAN DIES FROM INJURIES

An inquest will be held Tuesday on the body of George Harris, the aged man who was struck by an electric car at the corner of Shattuck avenue and Alston way last Friday afternoon. Reed was removed to Fidelity hospital, after the accident, dying there on Saturday. At the time it was thought that his injuries were not serious enough to cause death, but his condition has been incapable of withstanding the shock.

Her Life in Prison is One Long, Lively Picnic—She is Not Starving.

NEW YORK, March 13.—One long, lively picnic is Nan Patterson's life in the Tombs.

The stories that have been told of Nan Patterson being without money and reduced to making her own dresses in her cell and subsisting on the modest table d'hôte of the Tombs do not square very well with the accounts given by other young women who have shared her captivity.

According to the latter, Nan is having in captivity the time of her life.

NAN'S COMPANION.

Helen Werner is one of them. She was committed to the Tombs a few weeks ago on a charge of picking pockets in a department store.

No one appeared against her on her trial and she was discharged.

She brings away from the Tombs the liveliest recollections of her short experience there and the best opinion of her prison companion and cell-mate, Nan Patterson.

ISN'T STARVING.

"Nan broke and starved," said the Werner woman. "That's funny. Nan may not have much ready money with her in the Tombs, but she could get it if she wanted it by pawing some thousands of dollars worth of articles that she has right in the cell with her."

PLENTY OF RICH FRIENDS.

"She needn't do that, either, for she has rich friends who will let her have all the money she wants."

"I know of one man, a well-known man about town, who calls on or sends some thing to her every day, and she wants anything he'd see that she got it."

"That's funny, too, about her dressmaker in her cell. If she wants any clothes they come to her direct from a high priced shop uptown, and they're the best in the shop."

EATS THE BEST.

"As for eating, I know how Nan dines, for I've shared her meals. So have all the girls in the prison—all except the kitchen or women sent over from the island to keep the place clean."

"Every day a hansom cab from a well-known restaurant drives up to the Tombs and up comes a big basket lined and built in compartments for keeping things hot. In this basket is as good a dinner as you could get at Sherry's."

Not only the substantial, but the delicacies, even down to bar le duc. No, no, wine. They won't stand for that at the Tombs—I don't think. What?

ONE PERPETUAL PICNIC.

"Well, Nan just takes this fine layout and divides up with everybody. Yummy, the spreads we've had there. It was a picnic all the time."

You know, they're tearing out the walls of the women's prison. That left some holes in the cells, so we could talk and pass notes through."

To pass notes, because we could talk all we wanted to, but we used to, just to pass the time."

LAYING POKER.

"Then we'd play cards with cigarette coupons for chips. And once we played a game of poker for half a minute. And Nan won, though it was all her pie anyway."

"This rich man who sends Nan all the nice things is just ready to marry her. He's a millionaire. She expected to be out and married before now."

SOCIETY WOMEN.

"She gets heaps of letters from society women and from these women who run the women's clubs and things."

"Yes, I've talked with Nan to tell her how to get out. I'm not going to tell anything except that she told me the very same story she told on the stand. She said she was married and after it was freed she didn't know a thing till she was arrested."

the appearance and actions of one in middle life.

Time has not erased from his memory scenes and incidents of half a century ago and nothing gives him more pleasure than to tell of events now down in history.

And, too, Mr. Harris enjoys meeting with men near his own age and with them review affairs happening in the State's early life.

Seldom, however, has he come across one of his years who has seen the making of California—people all have been carried away by the hand of death.

"I did meet one gentleman in San Jose who is older than I, but he is not so lively," declared Mr. Harris during a conversation with a TRIBUNE representative.

"Time has dealt kindly with me," he added, "and I seem younger than most of the pioneers with whom I come in contact."

"But I am getting old—I'll be ninety-two next May. I am beginning to feel the years, and I can't travel about like I used to in the past."

In company with his parents, Mr. Harris came to California around the year 1848, in order to land on the shores of San Francisco.

Compelled to pay $7.50 to a boatman to carry them ashore—just a few yards.

One of Mr. Harris' most interesting recollections is that of the boyhood of Horace Greeley.

"It was back in a Vermont town that I first saw him," said Mr. Harris. "Dressed peculiarly and with his hair hanging to his shoulders, he applied to the town printer for work. The man looked him over for a while and then decided to teach him the business; that was his start of the great newspaper man."

"With the other boys of the town, I often played with him. He was a great printer for work. The man looked him over for a while and then decided to teach him the business; that was his start of the great newspaper man."

"One day, however, he and another young man of the town started off into the world each carrying his bundle over his shoulder and walking along the route to earn a dollar or two by working in the printing shops. That was the beginning of Horace Greeley."

In the early days of California Mr. Harris traveled about the State teaming and was a witness to many of the great miners' strikes. He also visited the State of Nevada.

In the present perfect enjoyment of his health and faculties, Mr. Harris feels certain that he will live to round out a century of life.

WILL OPEN AT YE LIBERTY

RICHARD TULLY'S PLAY WILL BE PRODUCED FOR FIRST TIME.

Tonight at Ye Liberty Playhouse local theater-goers will have the first opportunity to see the initial production of a brand-new play from the pen of Richard Tully, a native of this State and a graduate of the State University.

It has been named "Juana of San Juan" and is a story of modern life in the California missions, and is said to be most admirably written and somewhat different in its theme to the usual life of plays. The author, who has come from the East to supervise the first production of his play, has been a very successful dramatist, several of his plays having been produced with marked success. Scenically, "Juana of San Juan" will tell all previous efforts on the part of the management and promises in itself to be a sensation. The play calls for plenty of coloring and atmosphere. There is naturally a great deal of interest shown for Mr. Tully has scores of friends here.

MISSES HIS MONEY.

POET TALKS ON CRIMINAL MAKES ESCAPE FROM MOVING TRAIN.

JOAQUIN MILLER ADDRESSES LARGE CONGREGATION AT TEMPLE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Joaquin Miller spoke of the joy of living to a large congregation at the Bush-street Temple during the regular Sabbath services Saturday.

The poet was heard with much interest. He said in part: "Let us live lives of joy. Let us all live as we are appreciated to the full the saying of the Chinese that a minute is an inch of gold. Let us keep our foreheads to God even though our feet are in the dust. Surround yourselves with beauty. Here around us every day and every night are the most beautiful of the fortunate islands, for which the Argonauts of old searched. But not all of us have found the Golden Fleece."

"I know that you Jews have no power and that your people do not languish in prison without aid. But my people are not so fortunate. Give your thought to us. Think as I do of the men who have failed. That so many of us fail is the reason that I do not go to grand dinners and wear the things of those that are not there. Statistics show that out of every hundred men in commerce ninety-seven fail. Why should I sit down to dine with the three that have not failed when always in my mind is the thought of the ninety-seven that have?"

"But none of us should fail in the search for beauty and the large content. I have found that it is easy to get this beauty. Buy land. I have a little piece of land which is so steep that not even a mortgage will stick to it. But I have planted trees upon it and people come from afar to look upon these trees, that are pleasing to the eye. Do you and plant trees. Make lanes through which your guests can walk to your house. I ask you all to come to mine. I hope in my heart that you will all have land and trees of your own. Remember that money is plentiful and land is scarce. Money is getting more plentiful and land is becoming scarcer. Buy, then, the land when you may."

"This is not only advice given that there may be more service to beauty, but it is cold-blooded business. All the country round us is filled with little beauty spots upon which from one who could set up a home. Home should mean to us a place where the trees make music and where there is the song of birds. The murmur of the doves is especially appealing to me. I think that I may be that I really know the doves. Many times I have petted their wings. They come to me gladly and I as gladly receive them. And the soft song which these doves sing is that we all should be happy and at peace to your hearts and sweet lives singing this song of hope and trust in one another. Let us emulate them."

"As I grow older I feel more and more the beauty and the worth of love. I will tell you where I have found the highest, the most beautiful love. It has not been among those who have been what the world is pleased to call 'successful.' Many of them have kindness and love, it is true. But the best love, it seems to me, has come from those who have not achieved the small and vulgar thing that is commonly spoken of as success."

"These brave men and women who have made their fight, who have met with nothing but failure, but who still go on, striving with the best that is in them for the best that they may attain, these are the people in whose hearts I have found the greatest love. So I ask you to care for these people, to love them and cherish them even as they love and cherish those of us who, misunderstanding them, perhaps do not know that in spite of all their trials they still have the courage to stand aside a God from the dusty way of life to give to God and man the faith and love that is too often all that they can give."

According to Mulhall's dictionary of statistics the amount of money annually expended on alcoholic liquors in the United States is $235,000,000, $15,000,000 going for wine, $110,000,000 for beer, $55,000,000 for cider and $55,000,000 for spirits. One hundred and eleven million dollars are estimated to be paid in taxes.

But is Almost Immediately Recaptured By Oakland Deputy After Chase.

With the doors of San Quentin prison about to close about him, Harry Richardson, convicted and sentenced to serve one year for bicycle stealing, jumped from a coast line train near San Mateo Saturday, but was recaptured within a half hour by Deputy Sheriff Moffat of this city and now this accused is in the penitentiary.

Securely handcuffed, Richardson was en route to the State penitentiary. Just after the train had left San Mateo Sheriff Coburn stepped back a few feet in the aisle for some purpose. Quick as a flash Richardson, realizing that his opportunity had come, either slipped a handcuff off his wrist or unlocked it with a duplicate key, and, throwing the window up, leaped out, landing apparently unhurt beside the track. The train at this point had attained its full speed, and it is miraculous that the man was not killed instantly.

Deputy Sheriff Moffat, who was returning from a trip to Los Angeles, saw the man leap from the window, and immediately pulled the bell for the train to stop. Accompanied by Sheriff Coburn, he ran to the rear end of the car and opened the door. Hardly had the train begun to slow down before he dropped to the ground and took up the chase.

By this time the prisoner had a good start on his pursuers. He had taken to the marshes and was running at top speed away from the town. Nothing daunted, Moffat started on the trail through the marsh, followed in the far distance by Sheriff Coburn. Gradually he gained on the crook until a distance of only 700 feet separated them. Just as it appeared that he would overhaul his quarry a stretch of open water showed ahead which would necessitate quite a detour and might permit the man to escape.

Realizing that extreme means were necessary, Moffat drew his pistol. He has a reputation as a crack shot and his ability stood him in good stead at this juncture. Although deadly shooting was impossible he knew his ability, and, elevating the pistol at the proper angle, succeeded in dropping the bullet in the water alongside of the fleeing man, causing him to turn to the right. Another shot on the other side seemed to confuse Richardson, who turned suddenly, lost his balance and fell.

Moffat hurried to the spot where Richardson had fallen, but was surprised to find that the man had disappeared. Persistent search finally located him hiding under the marsh grass at the edge of a ditch. He was speedily induced to come out and again securely handcuffed, although a disposition to be ugly had to be nipped in the bud by a little rough handling. By this time Sheriff Coburn had come up and the prisoner was taken to San Mateo, and later continued the journey to San Quentin.

HIBERNIANS TO RAYMOND DIES OF INJURIES

COMMITTEES PREPARING FOR EVENT NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians of Alameda county, one of the strongest branches of this organization in California, will give a grand ball at Armory Hall on St. Patrick's night, Friday, March 17. The grand march will begin at 9 o'clock, and it is expected that this will be one of the finest spectacles ever seen in the county.

Efficient committees have been hard at work for weeks past preparing for the event, and it will doubtless eclipse every other similar effort of the Hibernians. The committees are made up as follows:

Committee of arrangements—Edward J. Murphy, chairman; Dr. D. F. Callinan, George Shields, E. McGowan, E. Dinneen, floor manager, T. J. Desmond; assistant floor manager, J. J. Pegemore.

Floor committee—D. Spillane, chairman; T. Clifford, Dr. D. F. Callinan, Dr. F. Maher, J. J. Britton.

Reception committee—C. Dwyer, chairman; J. Connelley, J. R. Kelly, James Corley, F. J. McKeehan.

Door committee—W. Lenane, chairman; William McGuire, James McElroy, John Pegemore, W. J. Tobin, T. A. McGovern.

LINGERS NEARLY A MONTH WITH FRACTURED SKULL BUT FINALLY SUCCUMBS.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Frank Raymond, ex-policeman and Deputy Sheriff of Alameda county, died at the Central Emergency Hospital yesterday and his body was removed to the morgue. On February 24 Raymond went up to Gustina Roman, a cook, who was talking with a friend on Montgomery street, near Clay, and demanded a cigar and a match. He got them and then he began to go through Roman's pockets. Roman shoved him away and he fell, striking on the back of his head, fracturing his skull. Roman was arrested at the time by Detectives Whitaker and Brink on a charge of assault to do great bodily harm and was released on bonds. Yesterday afternoon he surrendered himself and was booked at the City Prison on a charge of manslaughter.

TOILERS IN OUR FACTORIES

NO workmen in the world can do much or use the same intelligence that our own American workmen are capable of. This is why America is now beating the world in manufactures; all due to the brain and muscle of our Yankee men and women.

Unfortunately where there is smoke, dirt and dust and little sunlight, there also can be found the germs of disease. Nature's great disinfectant is sunlight. Sunlight and fresh air promote the growth of animals and plants but kill the germs of disease. Air, free from dust, such as we have on the sea, never permits the germs of disease to have any chance for growth and development. It is in the factory, the workshop, the office, the men and women suffer from diseases which are in the dust and the bad air. Such disease germs enter into the blood in two ways, either through the lungs or stomach. If the blood is pure and rich, the liver and stomach in healthy active condition, the germs of disease cannot find a resting place there to multiply. Diseases of the lungs, bronchitis and consumption, are very apt to spread through a factory where there is much fine dust in the air. The lungs become irritated and the germs find a fertile field for growth. Extreme weakness, feelings of nervous exhaustion, coughs and colds are the warning signals which should be heeded. One should put the system in the very best possible condition right away.

After years of experience in an active practice, Dr. Pierce discovered a remedy that suited these conditions in a blood-maker and tissue-builder, which at the same time alleviates the cough. He called it Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—an alternative extract that assists in the digestion and assimilation of the food in the stomach—so that the blood gets what it needs for food and oxidation, the liver is at the same time started into activity and there is perfect elimination of waste matter. When the blood is pure and rich, all the organs work without effort and the body is like a perfect machine; if, however, any part is allowed to rust, and this human machine does not get its full supply of rich red blood (which acts like oil on machinery), then new fields are created in which the bacteria or germs of disease thrive and multiply. The germs of grip, measles, scarlet or consumption find a fertile field if the body is not kept in perfect order and the blood pure. No men or woman can be strong or feel happy who are using an indigestible food. Because the stomach is diseased there is a diminution of the red corpuscles of the blood. This is why one is sleepless, is languid, nervous and irritable. Sensitive stomachs groan aloud at the irritating food liver oils, but they will get all the food elements the tissues require by using the "Golden Medical Discovery."

Mr. Roy A. Reed, of Casper, Wyoming, writes: "For eight years I had a swelling of the throat in the worst form; could hardly speak above a whisper for two years. Tried nearly a dozen patent medicines without relief. I was so discouraged that I just about decided to leave this world. I was advised by my father, however, to try Dr. Pierce's medicines before giving up. I followed his advice and commenced using the medicine on the twentieth of December. I was surprised to note the result of the first month's treatment. I began to eat. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was perfectly cured. It has been months since I took the last medicine, and I have not had the least return of my trouble. I have felt better during the past two months than for seven winters previous to this time."

Mrs. Lydia James, of Ogdensburg, writes: "I am glad to say that your medicine is a God-send to suffering women. I was sick in bed with liver complaint and kidney disease and fever when I began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In ten days' time I was so I could begin to get around the house, and gained right along. After that, took about five bottles of it and am now feeling better than I have in years. This time had it not been for this remedy, I would have been in my grave by this time. I would advise all suffering women to use Dr. Pierce's medicines."

C. P. Spencer, of Plano, Okla., writes: "I can hardly express my thanks for the benefit I have received from taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets." They worked like a charm in my case. Am in better health now than for some time, and will not fail to recommend your medicines to my suffering friends. I hope you will receive many thanks for the good your medicines have done me."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the best laxative for old people. They cure constipation and biliousness.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Aged Couple of Berkeley Celebrate Event, With Their Children.

BERKELEY, March 13.—Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary this afternoon at their home, 2130 Delaware street, where open house was kept and relatives of the family, including representatives of four generations were welcomed.

There were more than forty of these descendants and relatives present at the reception this afternoon at the Hamilton home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton are 84 and 73 years old, respectively. They are Kentuckians, who in 1833 joined a large party of more than 100 persons who crossed the plains to California in ox teams. Their adventures make an interesting read, even at this distance of time from their occurrence.

Of eight children born to the Hamiltons, seven are still alive, each having a family. All the living children were present at the wedding reception to-day. They included Mrs. Amanda Kennedy of San Mateo with her husband and son, Mrs. Verna Moore of Modesto, Mrs. Ella Thompson of San Francisco, with her husband and son, Mrs. Martha Murphy of Oakland with two sons and a daughter, Mr. Lillian St. Mary of West Berkeley with her son and three daughters, H. Hamilton of Lathrop, with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Emma Shedd with her husband and three daughters, Mrs. Serepta Rush, a daughter who is dead was represented by the children of her daughter, Mrs. Mollie Schou.

THOS. CRAWFORD TO SPEAK

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS TO TALK AT FRUITVALE.

FRUITVALE, March 13.—Thomas D. Crawford, County Superintendent of Schools, is to make an address on the proposed Union High School tomorrow evening at Allendale Hall. He comes by special invitation from the Central Improvement Club. All the citizens are invited to be present.

If the election next Saturday decides the question in the affirmative, the increase in property tax will be only 12 1/2 cents per $100, according to Superintendent Crawford's figures. Sentiment everywhere seems in favor of the high school.

The election will be held at the school houses in the five districts. The following election officers have been appointed:

Fruitvale—Albert Rhoda, E. Huffman, J. S. Riley.

Bray—R. Reinwitz, Geo. J. Hans, R. Turnbull.

Melrose—J. C. Hammett, E. Mynott, James Damm.

Lockwood—A. H. Newth, W. Cater, W. Butner.

Elmhurst—S. T. Chapin, Wm. Green, W. Taggart.

GIVES ENTERTAINMENT.

Many guests were entertained Saturday evening by the Allendale Improvement Club. A literary program of a feast and a dance were the features of the evening.

The committee of arrangements was as follows: Ralph A. Clark, chairman; U. A. Lewis, J. Crisbie, Captain Hostler and George Wittell.

The orchestra was composed of Miss Crisbie, Miss Hazel Utman and Manuel Lewis.

AGAIN IS TRUANT.

Elec McPherson has again run away. He attended the Dewey school a few days, having been released from a reformatory on probation, and then secured a position with A. Leidecker and went to work. Two days was enough for him, and he again disappeared, about two weeks ago. He was found in Los Angeles and locked up by the officers, but managed to escape, and was seen in Fruitvale three or four days ago. Constable Carroll is on the lookout for him.

"JOLLY 3" ENTERTAIN.

A social dance was given Saturday evening in Upper Fruitvale Hall by Lewis Shields, William Briggman and William Broadway, who styled themselves "Jolly 3." There was a large attendance, and as was the case with their previous dances, the event was a complete success.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

JOHN G. HOWELL TO WED MISS REBER RICHARDSON, AN ENGLISH GIRL.

BERKELEY, March 13.—The engagement of John G. Howell Jr., a graduate of the University of California with the class of 1905, and Miss Reber Richardson, a beautiful English girl of New Zealand, was announced Thursday evening at a musicale held at the home of Mrs. H. N. Minor, 2227 Dwight way. The announcement came as a great surprise to the many friends of the young man, who is well known in Berkeley and San Francisco.

Howell was one of the most prominent men in college and had the name of being the only man to make a financial success of the old college paper "The Berkeleyan," which he managed for several terms. After graduating he entered the business office of the San Francisco Call. He is now a member of the firm of Paul Elder & Company of San Francisco. He is a Delta Upsilon.

Miss Richardson, who is a member of one of the most prominent and wealthy families of New Zealand, is a highly educated and talented girl. She is much in demand in the society circles of her island home, for her clever penmanship. No date has been set for the wedding, which will occur in the near future.

POSTOFFICE MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—George F. Mahan has been commissioned postmaster at San Diego, California.

San Francisco. The San Francisco Police Department has issued a warrant for the arrest of a man named John J. Mahan, who is alleged to have been in the city for some time.

PUTS HER FOOT DOWN

President Wheeler's Wife Objects to "Co-eds" Trip to Sacramento.

BERKELEY, March 13.—A conference was held today between Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, wife of the president of the University, and Mervyn J. Samuels, manager of the Prytanean society's production of the "Mikado" at Mrs. Wheeler's home, at 10 o'clock this morning, when the vexed question of the "co-eds" trip to Sacramento was discussed. The outcome is not known, but it is probable the trip will be taken. Mrs. Wheeler voiced her opposition to the proposed journey of the "Mikado" cast to Miss Ethel Richardson and Miss Florence Fortson, who are respectively president of the Associated Women Students of the University and president of the Prytanean Society. Her disapproval was couched in the form of a question contained substantially in the following words:

"Do you young ladies think it well for women students of the University to travel about the country, away from the University, to give operatic performances such as you contemplate giving at Sacramento?"

That question, tentative though it was, served to start the agitation now on regarding the "co-eds" trip to the Capitol city, and the agitation before it is ended promises to embroil pretty nearly every section of the University.

It is largely a question of character. Mrs. Wheeler declines to commit herself on that point. She said to-day:

"Please see the women students to whom I allude about this matter. I refer to Miss Richardson and Miss Fortson. I dislike publicity or notoriety and do not wish to see my name in print. I have nothing to say about the matter. I merely asked the young women who represent the women students and the Prytanean society whether they thought it well for the girl students to journey about the country, giving theatrical performances. It can be guessed, I suppose, what my own thought is about the matter."

The wife of the University president told the women students to whom she alluded that chaperones would be desirable in every section of the University. She also stated that her husband, who is a member of the board of trustees, would be in Sacramento, and the proper number of chaperones, supposedly, were not included on the list of those billed to go to Sacramento. To other persons, Mrs. Wheeler has said:

"I was formally asked by the women students to see that the trip to Sacramento was properly managed. I should say that the proposed expedition to Sacramento required chaperoning, to make it proper."

Mervyn J. Samuels, manager of the enterprise who conducted the business details of the "Mikado" production, given by the Prytaneans at the Macdonough Theater in Oakland recently, said today:

"Miss Fortson and Miss Richardson informed me of Mrs. Wheeler's attitude in this matter, and suggested to me the responsibility of acting for the Prytanean society. I strongly favor the proposed trip to Sacramento and shall explain to Mrs. Wheeler tomorrow my reason for thinking the trip proper sort of thing. There will be plenty of chaperones on the journey. Mr. and Mrs. Magee will be along and other married persons. We shall sing under the auspices of a prominent actor and those who go will pay their own railroad fare. I think that no one will find that there is likely to be cause for complaint because of the conduct of any person connected with the party, while away from the University."

It is proposed to take about seventy-five persons to Sacramento on this journey from the University. There is a chorus of sixty, a dozen principals, the coach, Mrs. Janet Edmondson Walker, the chorus director, Clinton B. Morse, and others.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES RUN FOR OFFICE.

Election in Alameda Will Be An Interesting One—News Notes of the Day.

ALAMEDA, March 13.—The petitions of the independent candidates for municipal offices are now out, and from the rapidity with which they are being signed there must be considerable sympathy in the new movement. In opposition to the straight Republican ticket, the independent candidates are that there is enough sympathy for the new movement to make one of the closest political fights in Alameda for years out of the municipal election, which will be held April 10.

The independent candidates are Arthur W. Baker, for mayor; Fritz Bochner, retired capitalist, and H. G. Mehlert, the West End real estate man, for city trustees; Dr. W. R. Hughes, Harold Ward and J. B. Baker for members of the Board of Education. Mr. Baker is a nominee of the regular Republican convention, he being the only candidate who will be on both tickets.

The petition of each of the candidates is separate, but all are being circulated together. There is still some little talk of other independent candidates than those named, but none have so far announced themselves when the petitions are being signed. The petitions close fifteen days before the election, the petitions must be signed and presented on or before March 15.

The campaign has not yet actually opened, but there is much discussion heard on the street. Ever since the announcement that an independent ticket would be put up and that the gentlemen named would run on it, there has been some doubt in the minds of many whether or not they would run. This will be effected during the campaign, the petitions of the building of political enemies will no doubt commence.

FUNERAL OF CONDUCTOR.

ALAMEDA, March 13.—The funeral of Louis Critchlow, the conductor of the Oakland Traction Consolidated lines in this city, who was killed Saturday afternoon when he reached the fatal injuries, was held at the residence of his wife, Mrs. Critchlow, 1215 Broadway street, at 10 o'clock today.

Saturday was a holiday for Mr. Critchlow and he was preparing to go to Oakland to attend to the funeral of his son, who was killed in a car accident. He attempted to board a car which was pulling a disabled car behind. The cars were crowded and the conductor, Mr. Critchlow, missed his hold on the first car, falling beneath the second. He was caught by the wheels and dragged some distance, and though the wheels did not pass over him, he was badly mangled. Bystanders picked him up and placed him on a stretcher and he was taken to the County Receiving Hospital, but he died shortly after being placed on the operating table.

MINISTER TO WED.

ALAMEDA, March 13.—The marriage of Rev. Christopher Ruess, minister of the Lutheran Church of this city, and Stella Knight of Los Angeles, is announced to take place on the first Sunday in April, at the residence of the bride, Mrs. R. S. Thompson, for years the minister of the contracting party.

The bride is a daughter of William H. Knight of Los Angeles, formerly president of the Southern California Association for the Advancement of the Deaf. She is a graduate of the University of California, and has been in Alameda for some time, where the marriage will be held. He will occupy the pulpit of the Lutheran Church at Santa Cruz, and will return to Alameda with his bride on April 12, the date of the annual meeting of the local church.

LITTLE TOTS ENTERTAINED.

ALAMEDA, March 13.—The Misses Janet and Tottie Painter entertained Thursday evening in honor of the anniversary of the birth of their uncle, A. D. Harrison, of 1623 Clinton avenue.

The aged guests ranged from 6 to 12 years. The residence was quite elaborately decorated for the occasion. Supper was served at 6 o'clock, the tables filling two rooms.

Many of the guests attended in colonial costumes, this attire being optional with the guests.

PHYSICIAN'S BAIL IS FORFEITED

Dr. O. J. O'Connell, a physician of San Francisco, who is alleged to have been forgotten professional courtesy as to strike a woman in the eye while attempting to assist her from the back of a car, forfeited $50 bail for the young woman's recovery.

The young woman refused to prosecute her rather ungentle escort, but Police Judge Samuel J. T. Johnson, who made an arrest, wrote to the warrant, Dr. O'Connell, for two continuances and received bail, but Saturday when he telephoned Judge Samuel from the other side of the bay that he was engaged in a professional call Judge Samuel promptly forfeited the $50 bail. The physician is alleged to have been in the race track on the day that he got into trouble.

GIRL MISSING FROM HER HOME

Mrs. A. W. Hook of 1441 Santa street, San Francisco, reported to the local police yesterday that her 15-year-old daughter, Jennie, had disappeared from home on Saturday last.

The young woman, who is a native of this city, was last seen on Saturday when she telephoned Judge Samuel from the other side of the bay that he was engaged in a professional call Judge Samuel promptly forfeited the $50 bail. The physician is alleged to have been in the race track on the day that he got into trouble.

BIG RATTLER IS THINK SPENCER IS DEAD

BERKELEY, March 13.—An hour or more ago passed since William M. Spencer disappeared mysteriously from the Berkeley wharf, while on his way to San Francisco and his home, 2323 Bancroft way in Berkeley. His family have reluctantly come to the belief that he is now dead. On November 24 the young man walked out of a store in Berkeley to board the steamer Coronado, and ever since then has been missing. Whether he met with foul play or fell off the wharf is not known. There is no suspicion that he met his end at his own hands, as his prospects in business, for a man only 26 years old, were exceptionally bright.

COTTAGE PRAYER MEETINGS

FEDERATION OF CHURCHES ARRANGES LIST OF RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS.

BERKELEY, March 13.—Under the auspices of the Berkeley Federation of Churches a series of neighborhood prayer meetings are being held every Friday evening in March at various private homes. Two meetings were held last night, both largely attended. The meetings are held at the following homes:

- L. A. Hicks, 2621 Benvenue avenue; Professor C. B. Bradley, 2633 Durant street; Mrs. Odgers, 1631 Prince street; Mrs. Fitch, 1959 Mason street; J. H. Cooper, 2313 Russell street; Rev. W. C. Mosher, 2904 Harper street; William McGowan, 1294 Fairview street; Prof. E. H. Wilkinson, 723 Bancroft way; Mrs. E. H. Russell, 2217 Fulton street; Mrs. C. S. Newhall, 2620 Piedmont way; Rev. F. H. Robinson, 2809 Russell street; Mrs. R. S. Taylor, 2809 Durant street; Mrs. M. B. Lofie, 2106 Belmont street; Mrs. J. S. Munroe, 1420 Louise street; Mrs. Pondstone, 2223 Chapel street; Mrs. A. B. Orger, 2021 Regent street; Rev. W. H. Brayton, 1921 Russell street; Mr. Wiloughby, 1502 Telegraph avenue; Dr. Bertrman, 1492 Dwight way; Mrs. Thomas, 1525 Milvia street; Misses Eaton, 1903 Milvia street; Dr. Biehl, 2149 Stuart street; Dr. M. D. Buck, 2425 Bancroft way; Mrs. W. E. Ellis, 2335 Grove street; W. H. Bone, 1617 Walnut street; Mrs. Tyler, 2311 Durant street; Mrs. B. F. Brunk, Bancroft way and McKinley street; Mrs. P. S. Brunk, 2023 Delaware street; Rev. E. W. Dares, 2534 Hillegass street; Mr. J. Nielson (Thursday), 2351 Grove street; Mr. Fauch, 2220 Blake street; L. M. Foster, 2425 Hilgard avenue; Mrs. C. B. Hill, 2113 Rose street.

REPUBLICANS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

FOURTH WARD CLUB HOLDS LARGELY ATTENDED MEETING—BUSINESS DONE.

BERKELEY, March 13.—A largely attended meeting of the Fourth Ward Republican Club showed that the anti-primary campaign had not used up the enthusiasm of the Republicans of the ward and that they are just as energetic in the work of making the election campaign a success as they were in taking part in the primaries.

In the absence of President Gibbs, Vice-President Frame filled the chair and made an excellent presiding officer. The meeting was for the purpose of arranging for the campaign.

It was decided to hold a grand rally next Thursday evening at the regular meeting place 2005 Ashby avenue. All the candidates will be on hand to tell the people what they intend to do when they are elected. Besides there will be a noise-compelling and good campaign speakers. The committee in charge of the affair is J. Eagerly, H. Lambert and W. D. Grant.

The following committee was appointed to coordinate the campaign and see that a full vote is polled: R. B. Bowditch, M. McDermott, E. V. Gove, R. Boehrer, W. Brothers, C. Elcock and A. S. J. Woods.

President Gibbs and Secretary Emilio presented their resignations as officers, they taking the stand that as they have been placed on the City Central Committee the best interests of the club would be subserved by their resignations.

The resignations were laid over until the next meeting.

WHOLESALE PEARL FISHING.

(London Globe.)

A great pearl fishery will take place at Manichichikoff, in the island of Caylon, on or about February 20, 1905. The banks to be fished are the South-west Cheval Bank, which is estimated to contain 3,500,000 oysters, sufficient to employ 200 boats for seven days; the Mid-Bass Cheval Bank, estimated to contain 1,750,000 oysters, sufficient to employ 200 boats for seven days; the North and South Medegamam, with 35,700,000 oysters, sufficient to employ 300 boats for 15 days; the South Cheval Bank, estimated to contain 16,250,000 oysters, sufficient to employ 160 boats for 90 days, each boat being fully manned with divers.

THE CHERRY TREE INCIDENT.

WASHINGTON explained why he chopped down the cherry tree.

"I wanted to see if Roosevelt's saying and doing a big thing," he replied. "Herein we may see the effect of a prophetic advice in the future."

ECZEMA A FLESH FIRE

Those afflicted with Eczema know more than can be told of the suffering imposed by this "flesh fire." It usually begins with a slight redness of the skin, which gradually spreads, followed by blisters and pustules discharging a thin, sticky fluid that dries and scales off, leaving an inflamed surface, and at times the itching and burning are almost unbearable. While any part of the body is liable to be attacked, the hands, feet, back, arms, face and legs are the parts most often afflicted. The cause of Eczema is a too acid condition of the blood. The circulation becomes loaded with fiery acid poisons that are forced through the glands and pores of the skin which set the flesh afire. Since the cause of the disease is in the blood it is a waste of time to try to cure it with local applications; the cause must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. has no equal as a remedy for Eczema; it enters the blood and forces out the poison through the natural channels, and builds up the entire system. The skin becomes smooth and soft again, and the Eczema is cured. Cases that have persistently refused to be cured under the ordinary treatment yield to its purifying, cooling effect on the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any advice wished, without charge.
